Tampico Eliminated Dixon Quintet in Afternoon Game, 26-11

The Dixon high school basketball team was nosed out of the Sterling tournament Saturday afternoon by Tampico in a hotly contested battle which resulted in a victory of Tampico by the score of 26 to 11. Morrison had little difficulty in eliminating Prophets from the competition by a 17 to 12 victory, which left Morrison to battle it out with Tampico for the district honors.

Tampico had been going at top speed throughout the tournament and in the finals which decided the championship, started out in the same form. At the end of the first quarter Tampico led 4 to 2 and at the half it was 6 to 4 in their favor. This proved the breaking point, however, and in the second half Tampico did not score a single point while Morrison played a consistent game and won easily by a score of 16 to 6. The Tampico players appeared to be completely exhausted and could neither guard nor find the basket in the second half.

Tampico Got Breaks
In their game against Dixon in the afternoon, Tampico had the "breaks." The guarding was good and they were lucky in their basket shots, sending the ball into the hoop from almost any angle on the floor. The two teams losing in the semi-finals, Dixon and Prophets, were paired up for the curtain raiser of the championship event Saturday evening. Dixon did not give up just because they had lost short of winning the trophy, but continued to play their consistent game and won from Prophets by a score of 25 to 16, which entitled them to third honors in the tournament.

Morrison by winning the tournament is now entitled to enter the sectional tournament where the championship team will be selected to enter the state competition at the University of Illinois next week.

WALES MAY BE MADE REGENT TO RULE FOR KING

Parliament to be Asked to Replace Council of State by Statute

London, Mar. 11—(AP)—The possibility of the appointment of the Prince of Wales as regent to rule for his father during the remainder of King George's convalescence was discussed in London newspapers and parliamentary circles today. There were indications that legal aspects of the matter were under consideration by the Attorney-General and the Solicitor-General.

The Daily Mail said there was a possibility Parliament would be asked soon to replace the present Council of State, which has acted for the King during his illness, with a regency.

The action, if taken, would have for its background the constitutional duties which devolve upon the crown in the course of a general election, which this year is slated for some time in May.

The King—or the Regent—must dissolve parliament, and in the event of a victory by the opposition party, in this case either Liberal or Labor party, would have to confer with the new leaders regarding appointments, future policy, and the like. In the event of a deadlock after the general election the King, or Regent, would have to decide to which party to give power.

These duties are considered sufficiently arduous as to make it unlikely King George will be able to leave Bognor soon enough to undertake them.

HOOVER HAS OPEN MIND ON VOLSTEAD ACT, FRIENDS SAY

But He Is Heartily in Favor of the Eighteenth Amendment

BY JAMES L. WEST

(Associated Press Staff Writer)
Washington, Mar. 11—(AP)—President Hoover as he casts about for the members of his law enforcement commission is believed to be keeping an open mind on the Volstead act as a medium of enforcing the prohibition amendment, which he has announced he wishes to see succeed.

This is indicated by the context of what he had to say on the subject of prohibition one of the foremost issues in his campaign for the presidency. In all of his pronouncements from the time of his reply to the questionnaire of Senator Borah of Idaho, more than a year ago down to the present there has been no mention of the Volstead act and consequently no endorsement of it.

Each time Mr. Hoover has discussed prohibition his reference has been directly to the eighteenth amendment.

Studied Attitude

Those who profess to know Mr. Hoover's views regard this as a studied attitude and one leaving him free to deal with amendments to the present dry laws should the investigation of his national commission show that such amendments would aid in making the eighteenth amendment more effective.

Viewing the whole situation through the eyes of an engineer and an executive and not those of a dry leader, Mr. Hoover long ago recognized the abuses which have grown up around the efforts to enforce prohibition and immediately after his nomination he determined if elected to name a commission to make an investigation with a view to supplying a remedy.

To Have Free Hand

During campaign Mr. Hoover had the wholehearted support of the dry organizations of the country. The leaders of these bodies, and especially of the Anti-Saloon League, which has by far the most potent voice of all in the matters of national prohibition legislation, are now disposed to give him a free hand in his efforts to bring about a more wholesome condition.

Just what their attitude would be if modified by the Volstead act were proposed, however, remains for the future.

It may be a month or more before appointments to the commission are announced by Mr. Hoover as he desires to consult not only with his law enforcement officials but also with jurists and prominent members of the bar.

The commission's work is to embrace a critical review of the whole machinery of federal justice and its completion within even a year is regarded as high impossible.

Drunk, Thought His Friends were Drowned

Chicago, Mar. 11—(AP)—Edward Kane hadn't even been pulled out of the Des Plaines river last night when he started shouting his concern over his buddies. "Get 'em out! They're in there," he cried, meaning in the automobile he had just driven off an embankment and into the river.

Highway police pulled the car out and when it contained no bodies they dragged the river. This continued for several hours accompanied by the wails of Mr. Kane. Still no bodies. Then some skeptic inquired as to the residence of the supposed deceased.

Officers went there and found Jim and Eddie, safe and sound.

"Kane," they replied, "why, we left his car hours ago. We went ahead in another car. He was all alone."

Kane was to explain it all today to the Justice of the Peace at Morton Grove, where he was detained on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

Building Fleet of Planes for Mexico

New York, Mar. 11—(AP)—A fleet of planes destined for use by the Mexican government forces against the rebels is being turned out at the Vought Aircraft factory, Long Island City.

The first group of the planes, which will leave the plant fully equipped with machine guns and bomb racks, is expected to start for Mexico this week.

Chance Vaughn, head of the company, declined to say how many had been ordered but said his plant had been working day and night to fill the order.

Find Baby's Body in an Abandoned Hearse

Philadelphia, Pa., Mar. 11—(AP)—A cream-colored hearse, containing the body of a four months old child, was found abandoned in South Philadelphia today. It had been stolen last night from the entrance to the receiving ward of Methodist hospital.

Police believe that bootleggers stole the hearse, intending to use it to convey liquor but upon discovering the body of the child abandoned it.

A policy of "millions for extermination but not one cent for tribute" was urged by Judge Comerford. He suggested giving the Police Commissioner unlimited power and then accept no excuses.

Politicians who bargain with crime should be sent to the penitentiary, he said, and the bar association should clean out its members who are guilty of "fixing," "framing" and other unethical practices.

Rebels Move on City

UAE MURDER IS LAID TO M'GURN BY AUTHORITIES

Has Been Identified as One of Slayers of New York Man

Chicago, Mar. 11—(AP)—Another notorious gang slaying—that of Frankie Uale in New York last year—had been added to the seven murders for which Jack McGurn already is held here.

Announcement that McGurn had been identified by photographs as one of the Uale killers was made today. The development followed closely the visit of New York officials who conferred with Chicago officials about the Valentine's Day mass murder on North Clark Street.

The Herald and Examiner today said the identification of McGurn, Jack Perry, Louis (Little New York) Campagna and Mike Barnes as men involved in the Uale assassination had convinced investigators that the New York and Chicago murders were done by the same men.

Police said that three telephone calls to Chicago from the neighborhood of Uale's home the day before the Uale killing had been traced, and that they apparently had been made to members of the A. Capone gang here. McGurn and Perry both are known to officers as Capone men. One of the phone calls was made from the home of Capone's mother.

Uale and Capone were formerly allies, but their relations were broken in 1927.

Grand Jury Meets to Probe Booze Deaths

Peoria, Ill., Mar. 11—(AP)—The second act of Peoria's poison liquor tragedy opened today with the calling of the Grand jury. That body was expected to devote its entire attention to the deaths of 17 persons in this county from poisonous liquor a little more than a week ago.

State's Attorney Henry E. Pratt was understood to be prepared to ask murder indictments against several of the ten persons now held in connection with the deaths. All of those sought on murder warrants had been arrested except one alleged bootlegger, Maurice Quirk.

The character who held the spot light as the act started was Judge T. N. Green, before whom the jury was to be impeached. Because of his well-known opposition to the dry laws, there was much interest in his instructions to the jury.

Crooked Policemen Attacked by Judge

Chicago, Mar. 11—(AP)—Chicago's "dough-geeting" policemen, estimated as 20 per cent of the force, were blamed by Judge Frank Comerford last night for the presence of organized crime in the city.

"We know that organized crime cannot exist without police connivance," he told the Sunday Evening Club of Downers Grove. "Probably 80 per cent of the police department is honest, but the other 20 per cent is made up of the boys with an 'in'."

A policy of "millions for extermination but not one cent for tribute" was urged by Judge Comerford. He suggested giving the Police Commissioner unlimited power and then accept no excuses.

Politicians who bargain with crime should be sent to the penitentiary, he said, and the bar association should clean out its members who are guilty of "fixing," "framing" and other unethical practices.

SKELETON FOUND NEAR ST. LOUIS MAY BE OF BRIDE

Mexican Husband of 57-Year-Old Woman is Being Sought

St. Louis, March 11—(AP)—Officers today were investigating a possibility that a woman's skeleton found on a road near here yesterday was that of Mrs. Ella Brady Espinos, 57, of East Chicago, Ind., who disappeared last September while on a honeymoon trip to California with her 19-year-old Mexican husband, Rudolph Espinos.

Mrs. Espinos has bobbed red hair and false teeth, such as the skeleton has. She was about five feet five inches in height and 120 pounds in weight, which also correspond. The condition of the skeleton and weather-beaten garments indicated death had occurred last fall.

Constable Fassler expressed a belief that the skull, which was found apart from the rest of the skeleton, had been fractured.

Children Protested.
Mrs. Brady's widow, who married last August 20 to Espinos over the protests of her grown children, Ralph Brady of East Chicago and Mrs. Florence Bluck of Chicago. She mortgaged her home for $1,000, spent $100 for supplies and carried $500 with her when she and her husband set out on their honeymoon trip in a small coupe the night of September 1.

She promised she would write to her children from St. Louis, where she planned to visit relatives of her husband. The children received no letter. On September 5 the coupe was found abandoned here. Some apparel and insurance papers belonging to Mrs. Espinos were in the car, but her nickel-plated revolver was missing.

Police communicated with the Sheriff at Del Rio, Tex., where Espinos, also known as Espinola, had lived. The Sheriff wired that Espinos had been there and departed, without any wife.

Victoria, Hongkong, Mar. 11—(AP)—An American seaman, Kish of the cruiser Memphis lost his life today in a fire that took 14 lives in destroying the King Edward hotel. Kish, in attempting to jump to safety, struck the pavement.

Kish jumped from a high window of the burning building to a sheet held for him by firemen and spectators, but missed the sheet and struck the pavement instead.

A petty officer of the U. S. S. Nashville named Phillips refused to make a similar jump and instead knotted two sheets together and lowered himself safely to the first escape.

The report contained a recommendation to the building committee of the county board in which it was asked that additional precautions for the care of prisoners at the county jail be taken in the placing of additional bars over the windows. The report of the grand jury was read.

TODAY IS THE ANNIVERSARY

CONFEDERATE UNION
When Abraham Lincoln was being sworn into office, the Confederate flag was waving for the first time above the Confederate capitol at Montgomery, Ala. Foreign observers were holding different views as to which government was most likely to endure. Each had points of great strength over the other, and each had great weaknesses.

The Confederacy assumed a definitely solid front 67 years ago today when it adopted the permanent constitution of the "Confederate States of America." With few exceptions, provisions of the new document were identical with those of the federal constitution.

It is interesting to note, however, that the founders of the Confederacy attached so much importance to the contested principle of states rights that they incorporated it in their preamble.

Clauses which differed from the federal constitution were, for the most part wise, provisions. No appropriations, except those asked for by department heads, could be made without a two-thirds vote of both houses of Congress. A like vote was required to admit new states to the Confederacy.

Rebels Unrecognized
Secretary Kellogg stated emphatically that the rebels had not been recognized as belligerents by the American government and that no such recognition would be extended. He reiterated that there was no indication that any Americans on the American side of the border were assisting the revolutionists.

Most of the dispatches to the State Department contained no information supplementing that in press reports from Mexico last night, but one from Mazatlan indicated that the rebel advance southward toward that west coast port had been halted temporarily with the scouting forces returning to the rebel base at Cuernavaca. The American Consul at Mazatlan reported that conditions in the city were becoming normal and that the federals were well entrenched.

Arrival and possible fighting between the federal and rebel forces was expected. It was believed General Escobar's force of possibly a few thousand troops would be no match for General Calles and retirement from the city northward to Chihuahua was not improbable.

Fall of Canitas to General Calles yesterday was such as to startle even the most optimistic here. An aviator flying over the rebel lines said he saw everywhere men waving white flags.

The aviator communicated with the federal vanguard which immediately established contact with the rebels with the result that three entire regiments of 350 men each surrendered and were incorporated into the federal ranks.

Commander Escaped
General Rancisco Urbalejo, commanding the army, escaped with 30 of his followers.

AN APRIL REMINDER IN OCTOBER—

THE Sun comes up, and smiles, "Goodmorrow!"
And the sky is an arch of perfect blue;
Then a shy little breeze
Stirs the gorgeous trees—
Oh, proud October, you stoop to borrow
That breeze—it is April's, through and through!

Now soft gray clouds are dimly veiling
The gold and the blue—such April wore!
Look—the air is filled
With diamonds, spilled
From the sky's soft draperies, lightly trailing.
That April lent from her lovely store!

Missionary Societies In Happy Meeting

The "Open Meeting" or "Family Night" participated in by all Missionary organizations of the Christian church Thursday evening, proved a wonderful success. A splendid program followed the picnic supper. There was but a short business session in which Mrs. J. F. Kindig, the president, urged the societies to remember the Easter week of prayer.

Miss Golda Cunningham as Worship leader read from the Book, Luke 10:29-37, the lesson of "Living and Loving." Mrs. Nate Morrill presided at the organ during the hymns and special numbers.

Mrs. A. L. Palmer as Presentation leader called on Mr. James Leach for a talk on the work in India being transferred from its present location to a new area, feeling that this new center for future work is but a forward step in the work of saving India.

Miss Ora Floto, Mesdames Emmert, LeRoy Bridges and Deri sang a beautiful quartet number regarding the Missionary magazine, World Call, and Mrs. Reagan dressed as World Call presented facts concerning it in a monologue, "I Am World Call."

Mrs. A. S. Derr presented the map drill in a very unique way, dressed in the costume of an Indian woman, calling on several members for remarks concerning the work and Miss Dorothy Bridges, also in costume presented in pantomime the song, India Sad India, sung by Mrs. Reagan.

Miss Lily Cunningham gave a splendid talk on Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Shah of India, new workers in the cause.

Rev. Cleaver closed the meeting with prayer.

BREAKFAST—California grapes, cereal, cream, broiled cottage ham, potatoes hashed in milk, popovers, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Macaroni with dried beef and mushrooms, brown bread, baked apples, milk, tea.

DINNER—New England boiled dinner, corn bread, new maple syrup, milk, coffee.

Our great-grandmothers never counted calories, preserved mineral salts nor strove to capture elusive vitamins, but in their famous and popular boiled dinners they furnished their families with all these nutrients. Cabbage and onion were used raw or cooked several times a week and apples appeared daily. The coarsely ground cereals formed a steady diet, so you see that by using what was at hand a balanced "practical" diet was provided.

Macaroni with Dried Beef and Mushrooms
One cup broken macaroni, 1.4 pound dried beef, 1 cup sliced mushrooms, 3 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1.2 cups milk, 1.2 cup boiling water, 1.2 cup grated cheese.

Cook macaroni in salted boiling water until tender. Drain, rinse in cold water and drain again. Melt butter and saute mushrooms. Sift flour and stir with a fork until perfectly blended. Slowly add milk, stirring constantly. Add cheese and stir until melted. Pour boiling water over dried beef finely minced. Let stand a few minutes and drain. Stir this water into cheese sauce. Add macaroni and turn into a baking dish. Heat thoroughly and serve.

Oxford Dictionary to Include Words of American Slang

Chicago, (AP)—An Englishman of Oxford university has set about writing a dictionary in which "believe," "bogus," "loafing" and similar slang expressions in the United States are to find a place.

The historical dictionary of "American English," which will trace the origin and development of American words and phrases is the lexicographical project of Sir William A. Craigie, now a professor of the University of Chicago.

Sir William was knighted by King George V for his work on the Oxford English dictionary.

Among the expressions in everyday usage, which Sir William will list, are "electioneering," "to catch on," "to get the hang of," "carpet bag," "to strike oil," "law abiding," "to take a back seat" and "backwood."

Professor Craigie's original scholarly creation was born of his conviction that the transplanted seedlings from the pure tree of Elizabethan English—hot Americanisms only, but the whole United States' tongue of today—should be collected and edited in dictionary form.

From its seventeenth century beginnings this English scholar has set about the task of tracing the language of the United States to the present time, chiefly through the aid of volunteer readers.

Caveman Tactics Worked in This Case

Chicago, Mar. 11.—(AP)—When cavemen get going, ladies, run (don't walk) to the nearest exit. Ask Miss Florence Golde—when she gets out of the hospital.

Francis Nessel, 25, relates that he long has regarded Miss Golde with high esteem. His best friend he considered, proved a stumbling block in courtship, and it seemed as though he were not making proper progress.

He was talking it over last night with John Russell, Miss Golde's brother-in-law.

"You've always been quiet, shy and bashful," Russell said. "Get next to yourself, Francis."

The two men had been waiting a long time for Miss Golde and Mrs. Russell, a theater party having been planned. Finally the women arrived, and it was evident that Miss Golde had been reluctant to keep the appointment.

Francis Nessel sat, as was his wont, quiet. He heard his friend John ask Miss Golde why she lacked enthusiasm over the impending party; and he heard Miss Golde reply:

"I didn't want to go. I knew I wouldn't have any fun. Francis is so quiet."

Francis arose and glowered. A new light shone in his eye.

"Too quiet, eh?" he said. "Well, try this."

Miss Golde found herself propelled across the room. The shove was followed with some quick and hard punches. A knife flashed, and its sharp edge left its mark on her face.

Francis Nessel picked her up and carried her to a hospital.

Police reached the hospital shortly afterward and were about to seize Nessel when Miss Golde interceded. "No, no, don't arrest him," she said. "I liked Francis before, but now—well, I'll marry him whenever he says the word."

Berve-Schmich Nuptials Celebrated

The marriage of Mrs. Florence Schmich, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Winger, of Freeport, to Ben Berve, of Rochelle, United States deputy marshal, was solemnized Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. C. V. Bemis, of Langworthy Ave., Dubuque, Ia., by the Rev. Atchison, Lutheran pastor of Dubuque, before a small company of friends and relatives.

The bride was attired in a Patou ensemble of rose taupe, with hat and shoes to match. Her flowers were of harmonizing color.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the Bemis home, the bridal table decorations being in white and spring flowers.

Mr. Berve and his bride left Saturday on a motor trip to the Pacific coast, returning home about April 1 to make their home in Rochelle.

Mrs. Berve has been the proprietor of the Flo Schmich beauty parlor in Freeport. Mr. Berve is one of the proprietors of moving picture theaters in Rochelle, Mr. Morris and Oregon, and is deputy United States marshal for the western division, northern Illinois district federal court.

Interest in Next Three Days Manifest

Mexico City, Mar. 11.—(AP)—There was some speculation today as to what Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh would do for the next few days.

Return to the United States was believed to be delayed at least until completion of repairs on his plane, C-17 of Wichita, damaged when he crashed with his fiancée Miss Anne Morrow, ten days ago.

Persistent rumors that he and Miss Morrow will be married before he returns to the United States have been denied.

Miss Morrow and her mother braved a cold stiff wind and rain at Valbuena Field yesterday afternoon to greet him upon his return from his two day airmail inauguration trip to Brownsville, Texas.

Colonel Lindbergh's first words as he completed the trip from Brownsville were to George F. Rihl, president of the Mexican Aviation Company, which holds the contract for the route.

"Anything else, Mr. Rihl?" he asked.

"No, thank you very much, Colonel," he was answered.

Christian Science Churches

"Man" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 10.

The Golden Text was, "He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?" (Micah 6:8).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him? Thou makest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet" (Psalms 8:4-6).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Man, made in His likeness, possesses and reflects God's dominion over all the earth" (p. 516).

MERGING RAILROADS.

Apparently the great railway consolidation issue is about to come to a definite climax, in which some tangible, concrete steps will be taken.

For years the Interstate Commerce Commission has been hoping that the great eastern trunk lines would get together and map out an amicable rearrangement between themselves. To date, however, they have been unable to do so; and now two of them have taken things into their own hands and submitted their own plans to the commission.

The B. & O. acted first, listing the roads that it felt should be grouped about its existing system. A day later the Van Sweringen C. & O. followed suit with its list of roads it wanted.

Whether these two plans will ever be adopted in anything like their present form is, of course, problematical. But at least a start is being made. The next step is up to the two remaining trunk lines—the Pennsylvania and the New York Central. Doubtless they will be heard from shortly.

AN AVERAGE ROBBERY NETS $30.75.

Despite the large-scale holdups and robberies that are reported daily, Warden Lewis E. Lawes of Sing Sing prison doesn't believe that crime pays.

The warden studied some figures in his penitentiary the other day, and discovered that the average robbery, during the year 1927, netted precisely $30.75. Sentences for these robberies, in turn, averaged better than 13 years apiece.

To be sure, these figures were taken from records of convicts—the men who got caught. If the figures of those who escaped were added in, the profits might average higher and the sentences lower. But it's a good indication, just the same. Crime isn't, after all, very profitable.

REDUCING RAIL CASUALTIES.

In 1923 the railroads of the country surveyed their employe casualty record and resolved to cut it by at least 35 per cent by 1930.

As a result, various safety campaigns were inaugurated, old hazards were eliminated, and employers and employees co-operated to take the element of danger out of the railroad worker's job.

A bulletin from the Committee on Public Relations of the Eastern Railroads shows how well the job has been done. With 1930 nearly a year away, the railroads have already passed their own goal. They have reduced employee casualties by more than 47 per cent since 1923.

Nothing that the railroad men have done in recent years is much more to their credit than this.

COLD WAVE HELPS MINERS.

It is, as the old adage says, a very ill wind that blows no good to someone. A frightful cold wave has gripped Europe recently, causing a great amount of suffering and death. But to England it has been a blessing in disguise.

The unprecedented cold weather has caused a new demand in Europe for England's coal. Thus England's most ailing industry has been given temporary stimulation. The net gain has not been great enough, to be sure, to relieve the depression in the industry as a whole; but it has enabled some mines to remain open when they otherwise would have been shut down, and it has kept a few, at least, of England's despondent miners in funds for a brief time.

Following the movie vogue, theme songs are now being written for books. How about trying to popularize the doings of the legislators with some such song as "Congressional Record, I Love You."

Now that Mr. Coolidge is going to write for the magazines, why doesn't someone suggest a little essay on the word "choose."

President Hoover didn't send Secretary Mellon's name to Congress to be confirmed, thereby depriving several senators of a chance for Mellon cutting.

A dinosaur trail has been found in New Jersey. Why not bring Senator Heflin along to chase it to its lair?

Twenty thousand people heard Gypsy Smith in the Boston Garden one Sunday afternoon recently. That's almost as big a crowd as Gus Sonnenberg would draw there.

A New York doctor has discovered that the blond's blush is hotter than the brunet's. The dispatch didn't say, though, what he found that made 'em blush.

Scared Scouty then began to rave. "Oh my, poor Clowny's in that cave, and since the rock has closed it up, he can't get out," said he. "We must do something right away. That is no place for him to stay. It's mighty dark in there. I'll bet he's scared as he can be."

Then Coppy added, "Well, let's see. To help him out, it seems to me, we'll have to pry the big rock loose, and roll it from the door. However, we had best look out. Some other rocks are round, about. They might come loose and tumble down upon us with a roar."

"For goodness sake don't stand and shirk," cried Coppy. "Come, let's get to work. Poor Clowny is a friend of ours, and he's in dire distress. Perhaps there's cause for much alarm. What's in the cave may do him harm. Not one of us would like to be in his bad place, I guess. If we all feel in proper trim, we'll get a long and real strong limb and pry the rock out of the way. You think that's a worthy plan, please try and help me all you can. Somebody has to lead the work. It might as well be me."

They pried and pried with all their might until there came the dark of night. Then Scouty said, "I will not stop this work until we're through. You take a nap. I'll stay awake and pry until my two arms ache. And then I'll wake you both up and I'll turn the job to you."

The other two took his advice. To get some real sleep sounded nice. They looked around until they found a place where they could sit. And then they fell in slumber deep. Said Scouty, "Right at work I'll keep." And this is what he did, although the rock budged not an inch.

MY THIRTY YEARS AT SEA

By Capt. George Fried

On one of Fried's most interesting voyages the America transported troops from Siberia. Even on such a mission his ship gave succor in the form of provisions and water to a beached schooner. In each foreign port of call he found an interesting story to tell: life in ports from New York to Trieste.

By CAPT. GEORGE FRIED
(Copyright, 1929, Associated Press)
CHAPTER XIII

I have been master of the America nearly a year and was indeed proud when assigned to her, for I had previously been navigating officer of the liner during the war when she was in the Army Transport Service. While in that capacity I had one of the most interesting voyages of my career.

With the rank of lieutenant I was appointed navigating officer of the America in August, 1918. The vessel plied regularly between Brest and New York carrying troops, first to Europe, and then participated in the homeward movement. On one of the former trips an influenza epidemic started on board resulting in 90 deaths. The bodies of the men were all taken to Brest as the officers decided not to conduct burials at sea. Everyone on the ship at that time was more or less affected but the situation was taken in hand by the medical corps and the epidemic stemmed before we actually reached our destination.

Aside from this incident the America was fairly lucky during her career as a transport as she was never attacked by a submarine, although the doughboys were given a number of scares.

In January, 1920, the America started on a cruise of the world to help carry some of the Czechoslovakian troops out of Siberia. About 500,000 of these troops had been three years in crossing Russia and were in Vladivostok. Each of the allied nations had assigned several transports to aid in their transportation. We left New York for Manila with a large gun and a tug-boat lashed to the America's decks, proceeding by way of the Panama Canal. We called at San Francisco for coal and fresh water. Five days out we sighted a sailing ship bound for America. This schooner had been 110 days under sail and had run out of provisions and water. They signalled us and we stopped. A boat was lowered by the schooner and in a short time they were alongside. We gave them food and water and proceeded. The expressions of gratitude from these men I shall never forget for they saw little hope of ever reaching port, having been becalmed for a month and existing under a scorching sun on sip of water that was quickly disappearing.

After calling at Manila and at several other ports for fuel, we reached Vladivostok where we took aboard the usual 6,500 troops, including the wives of about 200 men and about 50 babies, some of the soldiers having married Russian women on their trek across that country. On our way south we touched at Hong Kong. Here we had to tie up to a mooring buoy in the harbor, using a heavy wire line and three nine inch manila hawsers. The next morning the hawsers had disappeared. Some of the pirates had been at work during the night and had gotten away with their prize.

We had several other experiences with the Chinese san pans. Some of them got aboard and stole almost anything they could lay their hands on including canvas, lines and life rings. One of these pirates was caught with a strip of canvas under his arm and was thrown overboard. A number of small boats were alongside but not one Chinaman offered to help the victim! Finally, one of the members of the America crew jumped overboard and rescued him, pushing him into one of the Chinamen's boats.

These coolies were a crafty lot. When they were loading coal many of the larger pieces were cast into the water alongside the pier to which the America was moored. Later they came long with their small boats and dove for the big lumps, bringing them to the surface and carrying them away to sell again to other ships. It was rather slow work but many of them were active in it and it was not unusual for them to gather several tons every time a ship was coaled.

At Singapore we coaled again. We experienced greater discomfiture going through the Straits of Malacca and across the Indian Ocean, because of the monsoon weather. The wind blew from half to full gale force steadily for days. Without this breeze the heat would have been unbearable but it was bad enough at that. The Czechoslovakian soldiers made quite an impression upon the personnel of the America. They had endured all sort of hardships for three years but were a happy lot on their voyage home. They carried their own tailors, barbers, doctors and cooks. For hours they engaged in calisthenics that kept them in splendid physical condition. During the organized drills they were clad only in trunks and upon arrival every one had a fine coat of tan.

The women also had classes and went through their drills with enthusiasm. In the evening they divided themselves into groups of 500 or 1,000 and sang folk songs long into the night.

We continued through the Suez Canal and on to Trieste where the troops debarked. The voyage consumed 45 days to that point. They left the America waving and cheering to our officers. We had a cargo of house furnishings in the holds. As the pieces were placed on the dock some of the men and their wives sorted the various pieces of furniture and baggage and then carried it to the trains, which were made up of box cars for the last leg of their journey home.

The America then proceeded to New York, arriving about six months after we had left.

Union Miners in Indiana Held by Court Injunction

Indianapolis, Ind., March 9.—(AP)—International officers of the United Mine Workers of America said this morning they had nothing to say "at this time" regarding an injunction issued by Superior Judge Linn D. Hay here to prevent union miners from holding meetings at Bicknell and Vincennes, antagonistic to employees of the Knox Consolidated Coal Company.

Word was received from Terre Haute that officials of district number 11 of the mine workers were enroute to Indianapolis for a conference at international headquarters.

The injunction was issued yesterday on petition of Edwin B. Logsdon, receiver for the company. The complaint alleged that union miners from Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and Kentucky held an open air meeting at Bicknell last Sunday and that speakers made threats against employees of the Knox Consolidated mine. The petition also declared that several of the company's employees were attacked and that three were fired on from ambush.

The injunction would prevent union men from interfering with the operation of the Knox Consolidated property and would prevent the holding of meetings similar to the one held Sunday.

Union officials have objected to the operation of the Knox Consolidated mines at a basic wage of $5 a day, contending that the company is bound by an agreement signed at Terre Haute setting a scale of $6.10 for the Indiana field.

ALL-CONFERENCE TEAMS PICKED BY BIG TEN COACHES

Murphy, Purdue Center, is Unanimous Choice of
All of Experts

Chicago, March 11—(AP)—First and second All-Western conference basketball teams, selected for The Associated Press by coaches, officials and experts of the game, follow:

First Team	Position	Second Team
Foster, Wis.	Forward	How, Ill.
Foster, Wis.	F	How, Ill.
Chapman, Mich.	F	Harmesoon, Purdue
Murphy, Purdue	C	Tenhopen, Wis.
McCoy, Mich.	Capt-G	Mills, Ill.
Chmielewski, Wis.	G	Marshall, Northwestern

BY PAUL R. MICKELSON

Associated Press Sports Writer
Chicago, March 11—(AP)—Michigan and Wisconsin, co-champions of Western Conference basketball for 1929, also share honors in placing their hard-board artists on the All-Conference team as selected for The Associated Press by coaches, officials and experts of the game. Each placed two, while the fifth member came from Purdue, the runner up.

Competition for berths on this all-star aggregation was just as close as the long championship campaign. Only one member was an unanimous choice—Charles "Stretch" Murphy, Purdue's "String Bean" Center and ace of all Big Ten scorers. It was the second successive year that Murphy was a unanimous selection. Four juniors and one senior compose the first team.

In selecting the team, judges weighed general offensive and defensive ability of which height, dependability and speed were the main requirements. Harold "Bud" Foster of Wisconsin was voted the outstanding forward. Not only did Foster score 36 field goals and 23 free throws but he was a great defensive player as well. Foster, whose home in Chicago has another year to play.

Robert Chapman starred at center for Michigan, but he was placed as Foster's running mate at forward by the critics. Offensively, Chapman provided Michigan's winning punch. He was able to loop field goals from every angle and during the campaign scored 36 field goals and 22 free throws. Chapman, too, has another year of Big Ten competition. He comes from Marion, Ind.

Murphy, another junior, was easily the class of a great collection of pivot men. The judges decided. First, he shattered the all-time Big Ten scoring record by looping 49 field goals and 45 free throws for a total of 143 points. He also scored the greatest number of points in one game, streaking through Chicago's defense for 26 points on Jan. 14. His six feet, six inches gave him a big advantage on jumping center and it was a difficult task guarding him without committing a personal foul. He was a bulwark on defense, too.

To Ernest McCoy of Michigan was awarded one guard position and the captaincy of the first team. The critics agreed McCoy was the outstanding guard and leader of the race. McCoy, who ended his college career, comes from Detroit.

Edmund Chmielewski of Wisconsin won the other guard post. He was the greatest surprise at Wisconsin this year. After serving as a substitute last year, he came back to star as running guard this season. He was a great dribbler, fast foot man and an excellent shot. Chmielewski comes from Chicago and has another year to play.

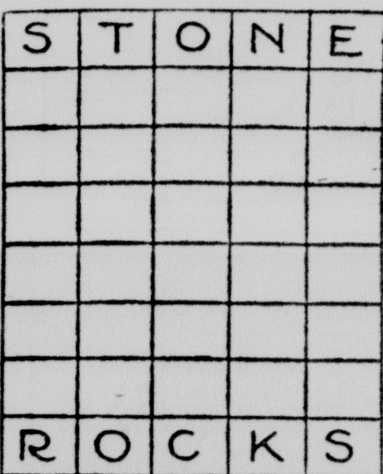

Recapitulation of scoring records shows that this team would average 34 points a game and commit only 7 personal fouls, while holding the average Big Ten team of 1929 to 16 points a game.

STONES GROW UP

The lovely STONE grows into a formidable pile of ROCKS in today's letter golf puzzle. And in only seven strokes, too. One solution is on page 7.

THE RULES

1.—The idea of letter golf is to change one word to another and do it in par, a given number of strokes. Thus to change COW to HEN, in three strokes. COW, HOW, HEW, HEN.
2.—You can change only one letter at a time.
3.—You must have a complete word of common usage for each pump. Slang words and abbreviations don't count.
4.—The order of letters cannot be changed.

MOST OF CRIMES ARE COMMITTED BY YOUNG YOUTH

Rodney Brandon Says
Broken Homes Make
Many Criminals

Chicago, March 9—(AP)—America's crimes, Rodney H. Brandon said today, are being committed by 19-year-old boys.

Brandon, Director of the Illinois Department of Public Welfare, told the League of Women voters that the country's principal criminal class is made up of youths "who have not gone beyond the third grade in school; who have not a religious contact; who have not been taught to do anything; who have never had a trade training nor an apprenticeship in a shop; and, last, and greatest, 80 percent of whom come from broken homes."

Recognizing that a broken home is the foundation of much of our difficulty, Brandon argued, society should try to prevent it. Divorce, he said, is a matter of the general public's education, but in homes broken up by death, especially among the poorer wage earners, society "should arrange some system of indemnity."

"If we could so organize society," Brandon said, "so that if a father died before his children were fifteen years old, there could come to his widow the equivalent of $600 a year, we would, at least, have solved the economic phase of the broken home."

You're Just as Old as the Colds Which You Suffer

By W. V. Gage, M. D.,
Denver, Colo.

"This series of articles is prepared under the direction of the Gorgas Memorial Institute, which is organized to perpetuate the life work of the late Major-General Gorgas in preventing necessary illness. Headquarters of the Institute are at 1331 G Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.

Edison says that "The simplest thing is the best but usually the last found out." This wise precept is certainly well borne out in our almost idiotic scientific attitude toward the common cold and its prevention. Colds, outside of the fact that they are entirely unnecessary and annoying burdens, are physical damage-doers past calculating, in that every cold produces either a transient or a permanent injury to the tissues of the respiratory tract. Eye troubles and deafness, enlarged tonsils and adenoids can all follow colds. Someone has said that "a man is not as old as the number of years that have passed over his head but as old as the number of colds that have passed through it."

It is almost absurd that vast prizes are being offered for the solution of the "cold" problem, that laboratories are devoting tireless hours trying to answer the question with microscope and test tube, when if the millions could only be brought in line to see with Edison that "the simplest thing is the best," the search would be over, and the populace receive the benefit of a cold-free existence.

You will not be likely to catch cold provided you will for a few months give your body the care it deserves. The cold germ has not yet been isolated, but it is probably existent. But, like a dry grain of wheat in dry dust, it will not grow until proper soil conditions are offered it. The wheat needs proper combinations of moisture and salts, together with the soil, and similarly the cold "germ" needs the soil and tissues of a neglected body before it can flourish, propagate its kind and then render its victim a menace to other unfortunate who also have not taken proper care of themselves.

Folks who carry around colds and who catch cold easily are simply paying the penalty of over-eating, eating wrong food combinations, not exercising, not sweating enough, not bathing enough to keep the skin "breathing" as it should, and for allowing a stagnant state of the bowels to interfere with proper elimination.

Hedges, 1710 E. Seventh St., Terre Haute, Ind., recently said, as she told how this amazing herbal remedy got her up but of a bedfast condition, banished every rheumatic ache and pain from her body and brought her to a normal state of health and freedom from suffering.

"I had rheumatism in my left limb and foot that was causing me intense pain," Mrs. Hedges continued. "It finally became so bad that I never seemed free from misery and my limb and foot were so sore and inflamed that I could hardly bear to even touch the flesh. Was down in bed or at best sitting in a chair and to get around at all was impossible for me. I did not know what to do as everything I tried gave me no relief at all and at first I doubted that Gly-Cas was going to reach my case but it has since surely proved to be the medicine I needed so badly. From a practically bedfast condition, in three months Gly-Cas has taken every bit of the rheumatism out of my body. All the swelling, soreness and inflammation is gone now and I have been in a normal, health condition ever since. It is just remarkable the results sufferers are getting from this medicine."

Star Witness for State in Murder Trial is Accused

Springfield, Ill., Mar. 9—(AP)—Charging circumstantial evidence pointed strongly to the state's star witness, Joseph Hairston as the slayer, attorneys for Odo Puschell, 22-year-old Rumanian chauffeur, today filed appeal briefs in the Supreme Court from a verdict of the Lake County Circuit Court convicting Puschell of the murder of Wilma Miller.

The body of Miss Miller, a maid in the home of Thorne Donnelly of Lake Forest, was discovered by Hairston, a Negro, janitor, and he told police that Puschell was also in the house at the time. Mr. Donnelly had left his home in charge of Miss Miller and Hairston while in Europe. Puschell was convicted principally on Hairston's testimony and sentenced to life imprisonment. His counsel contending that he was enroute on a train from Ft. Sheridan to Lake Forest at the time of the murder, charged the state confiscated his cancelled railroad ticket before the trial and did not return it until after the trial, precluding the possibility of establishing an incontrovertible alibi.

Mattoon Officials Seek Part of Reward

Mattoon, Ill., Mar. 9—(AP)—Mattoon authorities today planned to ask a share of the reward offered for apprehension of the robbers of the Congress Park State Bank at Brookfield, January 15 and the Washington State Bank at Washington, January 13, following arrest late yesterday of Walter George, 22, formerly of Mattoon.

George was the last of four men wanted in connection with the robberies to be arrested. Confessions have been obtained from the three others, William J. Cushing of Mattoon, Normand Ruffo of Chicago, and L. R. Toler of Mattoon.

Diamonds and other gifts valued at approximately $1,500 were voluntarily returned to Sheriff Moore yesterday by a probation nurse of Charleston, Ill., who accepted the gifts when she planned to marry Cushing. An automobile belonging to Cushing was to be sold today to satisfy a judgment against him.

Ericsson League Met in Annual Convention

Chicago, Mar. 9. (AP)—More than 30 members of the John Ericsson Republican League of Illinois were attending sessions of the thirty-fifth annual convention of the organization here today.

Tonight, at which George E. Q. Johnson, United States District Attorney, will be toastmaster.

The league was founded to commemorate the victory of the Monitor invented by John Ericsson, over the Merrimac during the Civil War. It is dedicated to the advancement of Republican principles and of good citizenship.

ROBINSON HAS REAL WORRIES FIGURING TEAM

Absence of Vance is Only One of Problems Before Manager

BY BRIAN BELL
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
Clearwater, Fla., March 11—(AP)—Wilbert Robinson, the "Jelly Robby" of Brooklyn baseball, finds it harder to display his beaming smile as the Robins, established and presumptive, go about their training. Any frowns Robby may be concealing seem justified. His star pitcher is out of the nest, his captain and shortstop about whom he expects to build his team is suffering from a sore arm and he has some fielders who can't hit and some hitters who can't field.

Big Dazzy Vance is losing valuable days of preparation for a busy season while he confines his attention to the business office instead of the ball field. The Dazzler thinks the club officials have under estimated his value by about $2,500 and wants his contract figures revised.

Glenn Wright, a great shortstop, pulled up with a lame arm in his first day of practice and is under treatment. Brooklyn lacks coordination in some of the players. If Wally Gilbert could hit like either Babe Herman or Harvey Hendrick he would be a third base sensation and if either of the club's star hitters could come up with the ball, Gilbert gets Robby would worry much less. "Too early," says the manager when asked if he had made tentative arrangements of his infield and outfield combinations. The task may be a trifle difficult much later.

Two Players Sure.
Two positions seem assigned. Del Bissonette, who can hit and field, will play first base and Herman will take care of right field.

Jake Flowers was given a tentative advantage at second base in the pre-season calculations but Billy Rhiel, who has had two trials with the club has complicated the situation by his good playing in practice. Wright in shape in conceded the shortstop position. Gilbert is essential at third base, Rube Bresler will be an outfielder, at least part of the time. Max Rosenfield of the University of Alabama, John Frederick, a Memphis graduate, Henry Cullop and Hal Lee, a former infielder, furnish an interesting contest for the available outfield openings. Max Carey is listed as an outfielder but probably he will coach and act as first lieutenant to Manager Robinson much of his time.

Six of last year's pitching staff, excluding Vance, are back. The holdovers are Doug McWeeny, Watson Clark, Big Jim Elliott, Rube Ehrhardt, Ray Moss and Louis Kouhal.

Hooks and Slides

RELIES ON VETERANS
There are few strange faces in the training camp of the Philadelphia Athletics at Ft. Myers, Fla.

With the exception of Tris Speaker and Ty Cobb, who have departed, the Athletics are going to battle for the 1929 pennant with the same players they used last summer.

Connie Mack probably has the smallest squad in the training camps. The exact figures on the other clubs aren't available yet, but Mack has only 27 players on his list and there are no sensational rookies about for the writers to write pieces about.

Mack, however, is content with things as they are. And he doesn't take any stock in those stories that went the rounds last summer and during the winter that the Athletics lack a heart.

"I'm an old Irishman and I have plenty of guts and I won't have anyone around who hasn't got guts," he told this writer.

And that is the real answer to the question about the courage of his ball players.

MACK'S VIEW ON RACE

"I think the Athletics will be up there again this year," Mack says. "I wouldn't dare say that we are going to win the pennant because you newspaper fellows have been razzing me too long. But I will say that we are going to be in the race."

Mack was asked about the other clubs.

"The Yankees will be a great ball club if the Babe Penneck, Combs and Lazzeri are up to their game," he replied.

"Detroit is going to have a very good club and the St. Louis Browns can't be ignored. I think it is going to be another tough pennant race, and I'll promise you one thing—the Athletics won't quit."

"I wouldn't have a quitter on my team and I wish I could make it stronger."

SIMMONS READY TO GO

One of the great sources of satisfaction to Mack is Al Simmons' fine condition. Al looks to be in great shape. He was sick at this time last season and he wasn't able to play all through the first quarter of the pennant race.

He reported a little overweight but he will get rid of that before the season starts. That means he will be in there driving in runs for Mack at the start of the ball.

Jack Quinn is around and he says he is going to win a lot of ball games again. He probably will win a few. Jack Britton is still winning fights.

THOSE HANDY-ANDIES

Connie isn't certain about his starting line-up.

He did say, however, that Ossie Orville isn't going to be a pitcher. Ossie will play first base or the outfield and maybe, in a jam, will be shoved in to throw them past the batters.

Mack has so many utility men that he can't be certain about his line-up. Jimmy Dykes, the Fox boy and Cochrane, as well as Orville, can play so many positions that the old man has a problem to keep them working.

Iowa Track Team is Winner Indoor Meet

Iowa City, Ia., March 11—(AP)—

Iowa's versatile track and field artists are the new Big Ten indoor champions.

Placing in seven out of ten events the Hawkeyes galloped away with the title Saturday night with a total of 39 2/3 points. Illinois, the defending champion and heavy favorite to repeat, came in second with 20 5/6 points, while Wisconsin was third with 15 5/6. Four conference records were smashed.

Hal Hayden of Chicago, whose team landed fourth, smashed the 70-yard high hurdles record. Orval Martin of Purdue shattered the mile mark. Henry Canby of Iowa leaped 13 feet, 7 1/2 inches in the pole vault, and Judd Timm of Illinois clipped one-tenth of a second in winning the qualifying hat in the 60-yard dash, but got only a fourth in the final.

WESTERN SPORTS BODY SUPPORTS PHREN DEMANDS

Insistence That Walker Defend Title Held Legitimate, Fair

(Telegraph Special Service)
Chicago, Mar. 11—Demands made by the Illinois Athletic Commission that Mickey Walker guarantee to defend his title are legitimate and fair in the opinion of Charles F. Traung, of the California Boxing Commission, who today conferred with President Paul Prehn of the National Boxing Association.

Traung said that the stand of the California commission on the Walker tangle would "probably coincide with the requirements made here in Illinois."

The Illinois Commission issued the following statement on the Traung visit: "At a meeting of the State Athletic Commission of Illinois held today, at which Charles F. Traung of the California Boxing Commission called upon the Commission, a conference was held in which the requirements and demands made by this Commission upon Manager Jack Kearns for Mickey Walker was thoroughly discussed and laid before Mr. Traung for his information."

"These facts will be placed before the other members of the California Commission by Mr. Traung, who is on his way east, having stopped off in Chicago for a day or two on visits."

"Mr. Traung stated that his personal opinion was that the demands made by the Illinois Athletic Commission and National Boxing Association upon Mr. Kearns were legitimate and fair and that he would be glad to take this matter up with W. H. Hanlon, Chairman of the California Commission and Mr. Wood, the third member thereof, for their consideration and that in his opinion they would, no doubt, coincide with the requirements made here in Illinois, demanding that Mickey Walker defend his middleweight title within a reasonable length of time with a suitable contender and that the California Commission would probably agree to hold the forfeit posted here in Illinois by Jack Kearns when same was forwarded to them by the Illinois Commission as a guarantee that a fight for the middleweight title, in accordance with the demands of the Illinois Athletic Commission and the National Boxing Association, will be held."

Today's meeting of the Illinois Commission brought suspensions for boxer Casey Jones and wrestler Harry Nixon. Nixon was set down indefinitely for appearing on an unsanctioned wrestling card at Ft. Sheridan and Jones was given 90 days idleness for an infraction of the rules.

James C. Mullen's card, with Heeney and Von Porat in the windup, for the Coliseum, March 12, was approved and Mullen given permission to stage four extra rounds of boxing, in order that a bout might be going on while the customers are being seated.

After visiting the Chicago Stadium this afternoon and consulting with the architects, the Commission feels certain that the gigantic structure will be in readiness for the opening bout March 28, despite rumor to the contrary.

That the Commission was amazed by the rapidity with which the stadium was nearing completion, was

HEENEY TO GET LAST CHANCE IN CHICAGO TUES.

Must Beat von Porat to Remain Among Leading Heavyweights

New York, Mar. 11—(AP)—Jimmy Slattery, Buffalo 175-pounder, and Tom Heeney, the New Zealand backsmith, are the big question marks on the national pugilistic horizon this week.

Slattery, possibly the fastest of all the light heavyweights, comes back to Madison Square Garden tonight to meet the stiff punching Jersey City counter-fighter, James J. Braddock.

Slattery has not appeared in New York since December 1927 when he dropped a close decision to champion Tommy Loughran. Braddock has developed in sensational fashion in recent months. After knocking out Tufty Griffith of Sioux City, Iowa, in two rounds, he lost a decision on points to Leo Lomski.

Heeney, trounced by Gene Tunney and decisively beaten by Jimmy Maloney ten days ago, engages Otto Vonporat, Norwegian slugger, in a 10-round match at the Chicago Coliseum tomorrow night.

This bout may decide Heeney's future.

If the Norwegian can knock out Heeney he may get one of the outdoor "shots" this summer. Tentatively the Madison Square Garden Corporation plans to pit him against

Things Look Bright for Lena Blackburne

Dallas, Tex., Mar. 11—(AP)—Everything looks bright to Manager "Lena" Blackburne of the Chicago White Sox.

Holdout worries have faded with the signing of Alex Metzler, star outfielder; his rookie pitchers are hurling excellent ball and his team has won three straight exhibition games from the Dallas Stars.

The White Sox were forced 11 innings yesterday to win, 6 to 5. Dallas misplays caused its downfall.

Lenten Thought

BY WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.

Editor of The Congregationalist

When we talk of salvation we think almost always of the things from which men are saved, whereas in the teaching of Jesus and in the teaching of his great interpreter St. Paul, the things to which man is saved are even more emphasized. Salvation from sin is only the beginning of right living and merely an entrance into the great treasure house of the soul, that Jesus came to open for man through his unsearchable riches.

The Christian life is dynamic. It is a life movement. Jesus does not life men out of sin simply to put them on a plane of safety. What he does is to put them on a plane of new passion and new endeavor.

John R. Seeley, the author of Ecce Homo, said "No virtue is safe that is not passionate." I think what he meant by that was that if we are content merely to have our lives free from sin, we are always in danger of being conquered by temptation. It is only as we have passion and intensity for good that we are strong enough to overcome evil.

There are no half measures in the true life of the soul. It is not enough to turn from the wrong; one must press toward the right, if he would be right.

COLDS MAY DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)
